Dear Chris

G8 Summit Magazine

I thought it appropriate to write and thank you for the hard work and effort you committed to securing advertising for the Official G8 Summit magazine, Gleneagles 2005.

It was a pleasure to have worked with you – despite the great distance between us – and I would have no hesitation in working with you again should the opportunity arise.

May I also like to take this opportunity to wish you every success for the future.

Kind Regards

Mark Watson
